Rebel & Rose is a Dutch jewellery brand that has everything it takes to rapidly conquer the world. The bracelets are both for men and women. They are tough as well as pretty. The names of the various lines already reveal that being conventional is not our game. 'More balls than most' or 'Lionhead' are definitely unusual names for a piece of jewellery. And that's precisely what Rebel & Rose has in mind. Rebel & Rose appeals to both the tough and the gentle side of the wearer. The bracelets are beautiful, fashionable and cheerful, but also rebellious and nonconformist. They are made for strong-willed people with an opinion of their own. Adventurous people who love fashion, enjoy life, and don't hesitate to stray off the beaten track.

Rebel & Rose bracelets looks fabulous when combined with other [Rebel & Rose] bracelets, but they also work with watches [mix and match]. After all, individualists follow their own fashion instincts. Think up your own creations and invent fashion over and over again every day.

Rebel & Rose leaves wearers entirely free and only offers building blocks that enable men and women to develop their own style. This has been happening in the Netherlands in record time, but it'll soon catch on across the borders as well. Thanks to Rebel & Rose wearers.

The free spirits who don't follow trends but set trends!
